Subject: [HOWARD-CITIZEN] Article in Baltimore Sun Regarding HCCA Hosting Virtual ADU Meeting

Reply-To: howard-citizen@googlegroups.com

FYI,

The following is regarding the Subject of the proposed zoning revision concerning Accessory Dwelling Units (ADU) from the Baltimore Sun — <https://www.msn.com/en-us/money/realestate/accessory-apartments-are-already-allowed-in-howard-county-residents-fear-a-rise-in-density/ar-AA1OxL83>.

We want to THANK Director of Planning and Zoning, Lynda Eisenberg for providing the presentation and responding to questions. You can get a summary of the meeting by going to <https://hococitizens.weebly.com/post-meeting.html> and scrolling down to "Materials."

I want to THANK our HCCA Board Members, Ryan Powers for volunteering to facilitate the event and Alan Schneider for monitoring the questions from the audience. Their contribution was without bias - Outstanding.

Note: Last evening at the Planning Board Meeting the Board made a major recommendation to the County Council that the owner of a ADU must reside on site.
